Southern District of New York

Re: United States v. Daniel B. Kamensky, 21-cr-67 (DLC)

Dear Judge Cote:

We represent Daniel B. Kamensky, the defendant, in the above-captioned case. Pursuant to the sentence the Court imposed on May 7, 2021 of six months' incarceration, followed by six months' supervised release with a condition of home detention, Mr. Kamensky is currently serving his six-month term of supervised release which commenced on December 16, 2021.

We write to request the Court's approval for two trips Mr. Kamensky seeks to make during his time on supervised release. Specifically, we request the Court's approval for Mr. Kamensky to travel (1) to San Francisco, California from April 28 to May 1, 2022 to attend a bar mitzvah of a close friend's son and (2) to Florida from May 27 to May 30, 2022 to visit his ailing father and celebrate his mother's 81st birthday. During these times, he will continue to be monitored by the Probation Office through location monitoring technology and will be required to stay within a designated home, other than for approved meetings or events outside of the home.

Granted.
